Sunday, September 26th, 2010: Women in Bible Classes

The men here have decided that it would be appropriate and helpful to take some time to study what the scriptures have to say regarding women speaking in the Bible studies that we have here. As it turns out, while the scriptures do teach that we should study the Bible, the Bible class that we have is not found in scriptures but is an expedient measure to carry out what the scriptures teach. As such, we will find no commands or examples regarding women speaking in the classes that we have. So we will look at when it is not appropriate for women to speak and then determine whether that applies to what we do during our Bible classes.

1 Corinthians 14:26-35

- 1.) According to 1 Corinthians 14, when are the women to keep silent? What reasoning, if any, is given?

- 2.) Some versions read “Let your women keep silent...” in 1 Cor 14:34, do these teachings only apply only to Corinth? Why?

- 3.) Under what circumstances does the church “come together” (see 1 Cor 14:23,26)?

- 4.) What is meant by “in church” or “in the churches” (see 1 Cor 14:28,33,34,35)?

1 Timothy 2:8-15

- 5.) What commands are given regarding women in 1 Timothy 2?

- 6.) What reasoning is given?

- 7.) What does 1 Timothy 2:11-12 apply to? Why?
  - Learning math?
  - Learning from another woman?
  - Learning & teaching with a husband in the home?
  - Singing (Col 3:16)?
  - Learning & teaching children in the home?
  - Learning & teaching with individuals in private (male, female, Christian, non-Christian)?
  - Other?
